

TRUST ME

I'm a Voter

Trust Me....I'm a Voter!:
Voter Initiatives
Gone Wild on Campus.

Trust Me...I'm a Voter! Overview:

- Constructed in COM 110 course
- Purpose is to register and prepare voters (Trust & Vote)
- Based out of 5 COM 110 classrooms with connections to:
 - Student Government
 - Political Science Club
 - Honors Program
 - CTLT
 - University Program Board
 - School of Communication
 - McLean County Clerk's office
- Registered voters and created political engagement events on campus

Social Issues Fair

Because it's my right & duty - Liz Hooks

Because it's funny
when the electoral college ignores me. :)

Because my opinion matters
Kate Gibson

where they've gotten us!!

Because...
I Can Be

Social Issues Fair

◇ Nearly 100 presenters

◇ Visits from students, faculty, administrators,
and community members

Congressional Debate

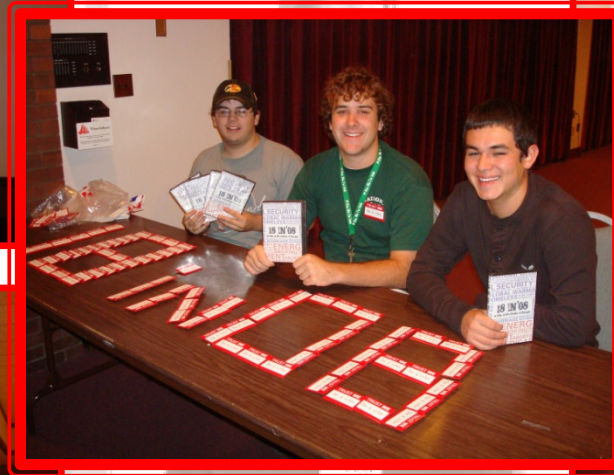

Congressional Debate

18 in '08

18 in '08

Classroom Variations

Results

- Deputized nearly 75 deputy registrars
- Processed 2,000 voter registration forms (6x times the previous election)
- Supported and promoted early voting efforts on campus
- Provided enjoyable, educational experiences for the students INVOLVED!!!

A composite image featuring a man with dreadlocks and a 'TRUST ME' name tag. To his left is a large sign that says 'TRUST ME' and 'I'm a Voter'. A red speech bubble to his right says 'Thanks for your time and support!'. The background is a blurred crowd with raised hands.

TRUST ME

I'm a Voter

Thanks for your time and support!

THE END!